Our Duties

Insurance and Investment Services Ltd, and anyone who gives financial advice on our behalf, have duties under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 relating to the way that we give advice. We are required to:

- give priority to your interests by taking all reasonable steps to make sure our advice isn't materially influenced by our own interests
- exercise care, diligence, and skill in providing you with advice
- meet standards of competence, knowledge and skill set by the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services (these are designed to make sure that we have the expertise needed to provide you with advice)

- meet standards of ethical behaviour, conduct and client care set by the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services (these are designed to make sure we treat you as we should, and give you suitable advice).

This is only a summary of the duties that we have. More information is available by contacting us, or by visiting the Financial Markets Authority website at <https://www.fma.govt.nz>.

Fees, expenses or other amounts payable for our financial advice

We charge fees for financial advice given to you. Any fee charged will depend on the nature and scope of the advice or service we provide. We will discuss and agree the actual fees with you before we proceed and explain how they are payable.

For services in relation to insurance or investment products, commissions or fees are usually paid to Insurance and Investment Services Ltd by the relevant product provider or insurer, rather than you paying fees directly to us. However, there may be occasions where we agree a set fee with you for specific advice and service, which we will invoice you for directly.

With Managed Investments and UK Pension transfers, any advice fees, contribution fees, investment implementation fees and/or ongoing service fees are deducted from your investment as applicable, and paid to us by the fund manager. These can be additional to fees charged by the fund manager. For KiwiSaver, the fund manager pays adviser fees to us from the fund management fees they receive.

If the financial adviser recommends any insurance policies for you, you will be informed of the costs of the policies. However, if you cancel a life or health insurance policy within two years of inception, we may need to charge you a fee directly for the financial advice originally provided, as the insurer will usually claw back (either partially or fully) the commission that they initially paid when the policy was put in place.

Whether a fee will be charged to reimburse us for our advice instead of commission, and the manner in which it will be charged, will be advised when the advice is provided to you.

Conflicts of interest and commissions or other incentives

We are here for our clients and to advise you as best we can. Your interests are our priority although we do have business relationships with product providers also. From time to time some product providers assist us by providing webinars, conferences and professional development training.

For Personal Insurance and Health Insurance, Insurance and Investment Services Ltd and the financial adviser may receive commissions from the insurance companies on whose policies we give advice.

We manage any conflicts of interest by ensuring that we prioritise your interests above our own. We follow an advice process that ensures our recommendations are made on the basis of the client's goals and circumstances, and all our financial advisers undergo annual training about how to manage conflicts of interest.

We undertake a compliance audit, and a review of our compliance programme annually by a reputable compliance consultancy firm.

Internal complaints process

If you have a problem, concern or complaint about any part of our advice or service, please tell us so that we can try to fix the problem. We have an internal complaints process and undertake to investigate your concerns promptly and fairly.

Our complaints manager is Norm Waldon, who can be reached via email at: norm@insureandinvest.co.nz or by telephone on 0274 852035.
